Karin Moore began Scottish country dancing in 2011 and it has been one of the great joys of her life ever since. Recently retired after 36 years of teaching law at UBC, Karin is excited about serving on the Board and is particularly interested in supporting and expanding our vibrant Scottish country dance community.