

Janet C. Mason

Janet was born in Oban, Scotland. She is a graduate of Scottish College of Commerce, Glasgow (now Strathclyde University). In 1963 she emigrated to Canada with her husband and settled in Ontario where her two daughters were born. She was employed with Duracell Battery Company in Mississauga as secretary for ten years. In 1980 she and her family transferred to B.C. For the following twenty two years she worked at Simon Fraser University as Business Manager in Computing Services, which was responsible for the departmental budget, for all administrative functions and for the office support staff. Upon retirement she joined the Glenayre Scottish Country Dance Club and has been dancing for nine years. Her other activities include golf (she is a member of Golden Eagle ladies club in Pitt Meadows), fitness, travel, and grandchildren. Organization, communication and planning are some of the skills she brings to the Board.
