

Peter Richards

Peter is a Glaswegian who emigrated with his wife, Kay Sutherland in the wave of Scottish emigration in the early 70's.

He completed his medical training at Vancouver General Hospital and UBC and started his medical career as a Family Doctor in Gold River BC. Three years later he moved to Deep Cove, North Vancouver and has been there ever since. He started Scottish Country Dancing with Dorothy Hargreaves and was a member of the first class. Despite winning an award for being "most consistently late to class", he has been a member ever since.

Kay is now the teacher of the advanced class and tries to keep him straight. He is glad to say that now he is retired from practice, he is nearly always on-time.

Joining the Board in 2012 was a chance to give back to the dance community and an activity which is a big part of his life.
