Frae the President

It feels like only a few weeks ago that the dancing season ended, and now we're already on the cusp of another one!

As we prepare for a new year of dancing, remember that members of some classes can register and renew their membership online. If you dance with the Branch, Burnaby, or Glenayre classes, take advantage of this opportunity to register early. It will make your first night back even smoother, leaving you with more time to enjoy the dancing.

After a few years of questionable weather, ScotFest finally treated us to a perfect day—not too hot, not too cold. The sunshine brought out larger crowds, and you could feel the energy throughout the festival. This year, the Demonstration Team, Strictly Scottish, performed in the Main Tent (not the beer tent, as I mistakenly called it!). And we returned to hosting social and participation dancing on the plaza.

ScotFest always reminds me of a giant jigsaw puzzle. In the days and weeks leading up to the event, there are countless moving pieces - rehearsals, practices, meetings, and planning - that can seem like a jumble. Then somehow everything comes together to create a wonderful day. Thank you to everyone who helped organize and participate. Your dedication and hard work made the festival such a success.

We also enjoyed another successful five weeks of Dancing in the Park. Thank you to all the clubs that participated and to everyone who joined us on Monday evenings. Even FIFA couldn't get in the way of our beloved Dancing in the Park! A special thank you goes to Alison Moen, who works tirelessly behind the scenes, coordinating with the Parks Board, booking musicians, organizing host clubs, and managing countless other details that make the program run so smoothly.

Since the last issue of The White Cockade, we announced a change in leadership for the Demonstration Team. After ten years as Director—and many more as a performer—Kay Sutherland is stepping down from the role. We are delighted to welcome Katherine Shearman as our new Artistic Director. Katherine will be supported by Alison Moen as Assistant Artistic Director, Heather Hankin overseeing the Demonstration Team Membership, and Gail Urquhart as Demonstration Team Manager. We look forward to this exciting new chapter for the team while thanking Kay for her years of dedication and leadership.

This year, TAC Summer School was held in Medicine Hat, Alberta. Several of our teachers attended the Teachers' Weekend that precedes the week-long school. It provides an excellent opportunity to develop teaching skills while connecting with colleagues from across North America. Rumour has it that next year's Summer School will be held on the East Coast, so stay tuned for more information.

If you haven't already done so, please mark your calendar for our AGM on Friday, October 9, with dancing to follow. To be eligible to vote at the AGM, be sure to renew your membership as soon as possible.

The AGM will also mark my transition from President to Past President. It has been a busy and rewarding two years. Alongside the responsibilities of serving as President, teacher training has also demanded a great deal of my time. Even so, it has been an incredibly fulfilling experience. Serving on the Board - and especially as President - has given me a real appreciation for the tremendous amount of work that happens behind the scenes. It has been a privilege to work alongside such a dynamic, forward-thinking, supportive, and friendly group of volunteers.

If you are ever asked to serve on the Board or on a committee, I encourage you to say yes. It is a wonderful way to contribute to our organization and to appreciate all that goes into making our dancing community so special.

I look forward to seeing you on the dance floor!

Gail Urquhart,
President,

Scottish Country Dancer Going Digital

The Scottish Country Dancer magazine will be provided in digital form to all RSCDS members starting with the October 2026 edition. Print copies will be available to those who pay $6 per year (2 issues per year). There is an option to purchase a print subscription on the RSCDS Vancouver website. Look under "Membership Classes" and the option to subscribe will be available on the same page as RSCDS memberships. Changing to a digital-first model is a cost-saving measure for the RSCDS, but they promise this format will give video content, interviews, direct links to music, richer photo galleries and expanded stories.

Patricia Christine Johnson
November 1943 to May 2026

We are sad to announce that Patricia (Pat) Johnson passed away on May 22, 2026. Pat danced on the North Shore for approximately 35 years, with the Gleneagles Scottish Dance Club and North Shore Dance Scottish. Pat also danced with a group at the West Vancouver Seniors Centre every Friday and afterwards enjoyed socializing at lunch. She also enjoyed the many Gleneagles Balls at the Hotel Vancouver, and dances at the Cultural Centre. She took over the Children's dancing group on the North Shore on Maureen Hood's retirement. Pat also organized a Seniors Group of Dancers who went into Seniors Homes around Rabbie Burns Day for dance demonstrations. Pat loved Scottish Dancing and continued almost to the end of her life despite bad health. She will be missed by her many friends and family members.

Margaret Duff

Just days after mum's passing, a wild female Spectacled Bear in the mountains of Peru, was safely fitted with a GPS collar. The bear was named "Patricia" in mum's honour. The bear is now teaching scientist about where spectacled bears travel, feed and raise their young. This information will help protect more than 1.5 million acres of Andrean wilderness. Having this remarkable bear carry Mum's name is a testament to her love of nature, her deep belief in protecting wildlife and a beautiful lasting tribute to mum. As "Patricia" the bear roams the mountains in Peru, she is helping conserve the wild places she calls home. A fitting legacy in memory of Patricia Johnson.

VSCF News

There are a few things of note regarding what we have been calling the SCCS. First, the name has changed to the Vancouver Scottish Cultural Foundation.

The VSCF runs the Vancouver Scottish Cultural Centre (the hall). Separating these two entities allows for the advertising of activities on two separate websites to meet some CRA requirements. The name change was mainly completed to try and encourage outside donations to the Foundation, as some donors were not willing to donate to a "hall". As a Foundation we may be more attractive to such donors, as having more emphasis on the activities of the various societies.

VSCF had applied to Vancouver City for a grant towards the painting/repairs/upkeep of the exterior walls. This is a task that needs to be completed by next year and we anticipate a bill of just under $40,000 including the cost of protecting the painters from the hydro wires. The City did not approve our application as they appear to be focussing on programming, especially with a Reconciliation focus. While the VSCF does have the option of using a line of credit and other funding, the hope is that other funders may be found. RSCDS is looking at this also, but that comes from the Board!

The hall continues to be well used by renters, which is ensuring that there are funds available to support the societies' programs.

A Visit from RSCDS President

At the end of April, Gary Coull, the President of RSCDS had a brief stop - over in Vancouver as he travelled between teaching assignments in Canada and America. He managed his time so well, he was able to join our regular Monday night Branch class. We were delighted to meet "The President" and to enjoy his company on the dance floor - he's a good dancer and lots of fun.

Dancing in the Park 2026

Although a shorter season, it was another successful year for Dancing in the Park. Thank you to the Vancouver Fiddle Orchestra, Strictly Scottish, Kilbirnie Station, Piper Derek Davidson, and Blackthorn for great entertainment. Thank you to the Vancouver Branch Executive for their financial support. And a special thank you to Alison Moen who makes all this happen.

An Afternoon with Ruth Jappy

Strictly Scottish had a lovely afternoon on June 28 entertaining Ruth and friends with old favourite music and dances.

Don Bartlett and Bobby Brown were much loved musicians, and she enjoyed hearing their music. We danced “Mrs. Jappy’s Measure” to Bobby Brown’s distinctive strathspey music style. Bill Zoebel had written this dance specially for Ruth (published in Dancing On Air).

Barbara Moritz organized a delightful afternoon tea with lots of time for socializing after the performance was over.

It was a huge pleasure to dance for Ruth who played such a prominent part in Scottish Country Dancing both internationally as well as locally.
