

Sue was born and raised in Vancouver. She attended BCIT and received a Hospitality and Tourism diploma. She continued her education in the accounting field and worked in a few Vancouver hotels for about ten years. The last fifteen years, before retiring, Sue worked as a contract bookkeeper for several, diverse small businesses. She is no longer working and is now able to enjoy her many hobbies. Sue has always had a penchant for dance and has found a perfect fit in Scottish Country Dance.
