

Vicki Downey

Vicki was born and raised in Vancouver. She attended UBC, getting her B Ed and later her Extended Studies Diploma at SFU. She taught Grade 1 and Kindergarten for many years. Vicki married her childhood sweetheart and they have 3 wonderful children and 7 grandchildren scattered throughout the world. Growing up she spent time with her Scottish grandparents and was introduced to Scottish Country Dancing in their living room after family dinners. When she retired, looking for a new passion, she saw an ad for the Burnaby Club and has been dancing with them since 2007. Since then she has become an avid dancer attending classes several times a week. She was a member of the Burnaby Club executive, president for two. She was Branch corresponding secretary for 4 years. She is honoured to be part of the Branch executive and enjoys contributing to this wonderful organization.
